ANALYSIS OF AAA REPORT 2013-14

In order to check the adequacy of the College, every academic year AAA Committee conducts Audit .

As per the findings of the Audit, few aspects of the college needed improvements. IQAC has instructed the improvements to be made to all respective Departments and Committees.

All Departments are advised to provide more notes, study materials which are beneficial to students for better understanding and good scoring which did not reach the expected range. Collection of Question banks needs to be strengthened. BCA faculty members were instructed to provide lab manuals along with viva questions. Matters relating to Attendance, Internal Marks are to be addressed as soon as possible. Committee also suggested that examination results should be improvised and course wise result analysis has to be done. Parents Interaction in Parents teachers meeting is to be maximized. Committees are suggested to conduct more programs and ensure Student's participation. The procedures and circulars are to be maintained properly. The canteen services are to be improvised. Discipline from Students is also expected. Code of Conduct is to be strictly followed. Students are to be encouraged to participate in Seminars and Paper Presentations.

IQAC considering the above mentioned matters ensures these will be addressed as soon as possible for the betterment of college.
